

Beenleigh Floods Close Beenleigh Events Centre for the Steps to Life, Daniel Mesa seminar, scheduled for this weekend.

Unfortunately the heavy rain that has fallen overnight in South Eastern QLD and Northern NSW has caused the closure of the Beenleigh Events Centre to us. It is being used as an evacuation centre for people in the hall and for animals in the car park. This applies to tonight, Friday evening, and all day tomorrow.

The Spanish Adventist Church that worships at Inala, has made available their place of worship for the Steps to Life seminar with Pastor Daniel Mesa. It will commence at 10.00 am tomorrow, Sabbath April 1. There will be two presentations in the morning, followed by a fellowship lunch, and two presentations in the afternoon. Please bring some food to contribute to the lunch.

The address is -

Salvation Army Hall
83 Inala Ave
Inala (via Boundary Rd).

Please use Boundary Road as it is not affected by flood waters.

The hall seats 300 people but they only have seating for 150. If you are able, please bring a folding chair to assist with making sure everyone can be seated comfortably.

Steps to Life is most grateful to the Spanish Adventist Church for making their weekly worship space available.

Pastor Daniel Mesa's full program is available from Steps to Life on DVD or on MP3. It can be obtained by calling Steps to Life on 03 9739 4093 or by shopping online at www.steps.org.au

1. The Gospel of Daniel

From a home with an alcoholic father and with a mother who was struggling to keep her Christian faith, Pastor Daniel Mesa grew up angry and willing to do many things to get attention. Becoming a heavy-metal drummer as an early teen, Daniel hung out with the wrong crowd, leading him to gang fights, thievery, debauchery, drugs, several near death experiences and eleven major accidents. Come learn how God changed his life.

2. The Three Angels in Daniel

The Three Angels' messages found in Revelation 14:6-12 are not new Testament ideas. In fact, they stem all the way back to the book of Genesis! This presentation will show how the book of Daniel covers the three Angels' messages in chronological order! The reformation exemplified in these chapters will help us prepare for all future events.

3. The Fraudhead

God has revealed great truth to His people through His holy word. The enemy knows God's people study that word to learn the truth, so he has tried to mimic nearly every truth that God has revealed within its pages. The enemy's three central powers in the book of Revelation are meant to deceive and replace the "The three powers of the Godhead" {AUCR October 7, 1907, par. 9}. Who's path will you follow?

4. The Kingdom Conundrum

God has placed a description of His beautiful kingdom in the Bible. Again, the enemy knows that whatever God has revealed can be impersonated by him to potentially deceive the saints of the Most High. Don't be deceived! Just as God has a kingdom of truth and righteousness, the enemy has a kingdom too! See God's kingdom mirrored by the enemy in the Revelation.

5. Investigations Continue

All through the Bible—from Genesis to Revelation—we are able to see the truth about God's way of investigating and judging. From the stories of the Bible, God has shown His mode of operation in regards to how He interacts with His people in the context of judgment. Knowing that we are expected to experience life reformation to reflect His glory, understanding this is imperative!

6. A Revelation of Salvation

A bird's eye view of the book of Revelation gives a clear explanation of how God has shown that His way "is in the sanctuary" (Psalms 77:13). Just as God has taken Daniel from being a drunk and stoned heavy-metal drummer into a life of preaching eternal truth, He has a plan for any human, as long as that person will listen to His word!
